

Computer Requirements for Biology or Biochemistry Majors

All biology or biochemistry students will need to access a computer for their coursework. Students can opt for an Apple or PC computer of their choice or use the provided on-campus computer labs. Additional hardware requirements may be listed in your syllabus (webcam, microphone).

Specific Biology labs offer laptops for use in lab.

Software:

Software students will use include but are not limited to Microsoft Office: Word, Excel and PowerPoint. Courses requiring specific software will communicate directly with students to provide temporary access.
